with Bela Gligorova, Filbright Alumnus & College Counselor at NOVA High School

November 24th, 2009

The last presentation of the International Education Week series was the one for writing the supplement essay held by Bela Gligorova. Ms. Gligorova had two handouts prepared one of which had a summary of guidelines and tips on how to write the essay. Each of these tips was illustrated by Bela with examples from her vast experience as a college counselor. Possible truthful topics were suggested to the attendees. The second handout had samples of supplemental essay questions. Bela gave suggestions how to make the best of each of these topics and the kind of writing style the students should employ. The attendees had lots of questions to ask and every single one of the their questions was addressed after the formal part of the presentation was over. Bela stayed for an additional hour and talked to the attendees about their future plans concerning their studies giving them advice which many of them found to be extremely useful.
